THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GOPALA KRISHNA TAMADA

WRIT PETITION No.25662 of 1997

ORDER:

Petitioner claims to be the owner and pattadar of Sy.Nos.60, 61,71 and 78 admeasuring Ac.5.07 guntas, 1.21 guntas and 0.13 guntas situated at Narayanapur village. He alleges that his brother by name K.Shanthaiah is a peon in Reserve Bank of India, and he obtained a loan from Primary Agricultural Co-operative Bank, and for repayment of the said loan he sold the said land to one Kajabi by creating false impression that the said land is joint family property. Thereafter, the said Kajabi approached the respondent-authorities for mutation of his name in the records. It is the apprehension of the petitioner that the second respondent, on the instructions of the first respondent, is going ahead to change the entries in the revenue records. Hence, this writ petition.

When the writ petition came up for hearing today, it is brought to the notice of this Court that the learned counsel for the petitioner is no more. At this length of time, it is not desirable to issue notice to the petitioner, as the writ petition is filed only with an apprehension. Though rule nisi was issued in this writ petition on 19.01.1998, no interim order was passed staying the proposed mutation. Therefore, no orders can be passed on the basis of mere apprehensions.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.
